

UN INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE 2014

The Cordoba Foundation, London Peace Network & Faith-based Regeneration Network

Peace-Building in the 21st Century

Celebrating Achievements and Hopes, Confronting Real Issues

St Ethelburga's Centre for Reconciliation & Peace, 78 Bishopsgate, London EC2N 4AG

Monday 15 September 2014 9.30am-3.30pm

A timely conference that engages scholars, faith and community leaders and experts from different fields to discuss building peace in the 21st century, from the crises in the Middle East, peace and warfare, conflict resolution, the limits and challenges of grassroots peace endeavours, to conceptual frameworks governing peace and dialogue.

Skills-based workshops, panel discussions & Muslim-Jewish theatre from MUJU.

Conflict Resilience

Hostage Negotiations

Dialogue & Conversations

Peace through the Creative Arts

Peace v War – what's on the ascendency & why?

Grassroots communities & peace-building

Conflicts in the Middle East & North Africa

Peace or Appeasement?

All welcome

Limited space

Entrance is £15 (£5 for concessions) Book online at www.londonpeaceconference.eventbrite.co.uk

Supported by the Christian Muslim Forum, Religions for Peace UK, the Muslim Council of Britain, the Al-Khoei Foundation, Quakers, Peace One Day, UNA Westminster and others.

Further information at www.londonpeacenet.org.