International Day of Peace

September 21st 2014

THE UN INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE is marked in September each year. In 2012, hundreds of Islamic centres in the UK and overseas led their local communities in observing the day. Last year, Islamic centres were joined by synagogues and churches which also opened their doors to visitors.

This year, on Friday 19 September, they will be inviting guests to join them during or after Friday Prayers (Salaatul-Jumu'a) to exchange messages of peace, to celebrate local peace-building activities and to enjoy the hospitality offered.

Local schools, churches, synagogues, temples, gurdwaras and community organisations will be invited to observe the day by accepting these invitations.

On Saturday 20th September and Sunday 21st September, synagogues and churches will be inviting visitors to exchange messages of peace.

The following Muslim centres and organisations will be coordinating other centres in marking the International Day of Peace this year. They invite you to join and to participate by inviting visitors (or by accepting invitations) to mark the occasion at your local mosque or Islamic centre. Please register with one of the groups below or with the contacts overleaf.

Messages of Peace from Religious Traditions

ISLAM

The worshippers of the All-Merciful are they who tread gently upon the earth, and when the ignorant address them, they reply, "Peace!" [QUR'AN, 25:63]

BAHA'I FAITH

All men have been created to carry forward an ever-advancing civilization. The Almighty beareth Me witness: to act like the beasts of the field is unworthy of man. Those virtues that befit his dignity are forbearance, mercy, compassion and loving-kindness towards all the peoples and kindreds of the earth. [BAHA'ULLAH]

BUDDHISM

Life is dear to all. Comparing others with oneself, one should neither kill nor cause to kill. [DHAMMAPADA: 130]

CHRISTIANITY

But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good for those who hate you and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you. [Matthew 5:38-44]

HINDUISM

Ahimsa [non-violence] is the greatest gift. Ahimsa is the highest self-control. Ahimsa is the highest sacrifice. Ahimsa is the highest power. Ahimsa is the highest friend. Ahimsa is the highest truth. Ahimsa is the highest teaching.

[MAHABHARATA 18:116:37-41]

JAINISM

There is no quality of soul more subtle than non-violence and no virtue of spirit greater than reverence for life.

[MAHAVIRA]

JUDAISM

Great is peace, for God's name is peace ... Great is peace, for it encompasses all blessings ... Great is peace, for even in times of war, peace must be sought ... Great is peace, for when the Messiah comes, he will commence with peace.

[MIDRASH LEVITICUS RABBAH 9:9]

SIKHISM

No one is my enemy
No one is a foreigner
With all I am at peace
God within us renders us
Incapable of hate and prejudice.

[GURU NANAK]

ZOROASTRIANISM

We humbly request the Creator Ahura Mazda to bless this house, this country and the planet we inhabit. May obedience smite disobedience. May peace smite discord. May generosity smite stinginess. May reverence smite pride. May truthfulness smite falsehood. May happiness, offspring and innate wisdom never leave us. May the long friendship of Asha (Righteousness) which gives comfort and ease never leave us. We pray that good thoughts, good words and good deeds neutralise evil thoughts, evil words and evil deeds thus bringing peace in this world. May our good and righteous actions transform the world enabling all to live a long comfortable life.
